I Will Stand and Bless My Mom

Copyright 2007

Words & Music by Heather Duncan

♩ = 76

D Em D/F# G D A D

1. She is clothed in strength and dig - ni - ty, there is wis - dom in her words. She
2. (She is) worth far more than ru bies, far more pre - cious than fine gold. She (en-)

4 D Em D/F# G D A D Bm G

teach es me with kind - ness, the sweet - est voice I've heard. She watch - es o - ver all her house, puts our rich - es all she touch - es from the young - est to the old. Her hus - band puts his trust in her, and her needs before her own. So I will stand and bless my Mom for the love that she has shown. I will deeds de - serve our praise. So I will stand and bless my Mom. I will love her all my days. I will stand and bless my Mom. I will let the whole world see. Yes, she stands a - bove the rest. I will stand and bless my Mom. She is stand and bless my Mom. A god - ly wo - man I have found. She's a moth - er, friend and wife. A god - ly wo - man I have found. She's the one who gave me life. I will stand and bless my Mom. I will let the whole world see.

7 Bm A D Em D/F# G D A D

10 D A G Em A D F# G Gm

13 1. D A D 2. D A D

16 Bm G Bm A Bm G

19 Em A G A D A G Em A

22 D F# G Gm D A D

Yes, she stands a - bove the rest. I will stand and bless my Mom.