

I Will Stand and Bless My Mom

Copyright 2007

Words & Music by Heather Duncan

$\text{♩} = 76$

1. She is clothed in strength and dig-ni-ty, there is wis-dom in her words. She
2. (She is) worth far more than ru-bies, far more pre-cious than fine gold. She (en-) teach es me with kind-ness, the sweet-est voice I've heard. She watch-es o-ver all her house, puts our rich-es all she touch-es from the young-est to the old. Her hus-band puts his trust in her, and her needs before her own. So I will stand and bless my Mom for the love that she has shown. I will deeds de-serve our praise. So I will stand and bless my Mom. I will love her all my days. I will stand and bless my Mom. I will let the whole world see. Yes, she stands a-bove the rest. I will stand and bless my Mom. She is stand and bless my Mom. A 16

4

7

10

13

god-ly wo-man I have found. She's a moth-er, friend and wife. A god-ly wo-man I have found. She's the one who gave me life. I will stand and bless my Mom. I will let the whole world see.

19

22

Yes, she stands a-bove the rest. I will stand and bless my Mom.